~Museums in Tokyo~

One fact about me is that I like museums a lot. Before coming to Fuji, I had worked and volunteered at four different museums in the United States. I think we are lucky to live in Tokyo where there are some of the best museums in the world! I like museums because we do not have to travel far to see famous art.

Recently, I visited some museums. I went to the Tokyo National Museum, the Tokyo Metropolitan Art Museum, and the National Museum of Western Art. I enjoyed seeing the artwork and learning about the artists. I also visited the Mori Digital Art Museum. It was a lot of fun! I definitely plan to visit more

~ Hedgehog Cafe ~

Recently, I went to a hedgehog cafe in Harajuku.

I was at the cafe for 30 minutes. I met two different hedgehogs. One was very sleepy, and the other one was very active, but both of them were very cute. They were very spiky, so I had to wear gloves to hold them so that they wouldn't hurt my hands.

In Australia, we do not have hedgehog cafes, so I was very interested in going to a hedgehog cafe. We do have cat cafes, but there are not as many cat cafes in Australia as there are in Japan.

If you could meet any animal, which animal would you like to meet?
